

Author: John, the Apostle

Date: Written in Patmos between A.D. 65 and 95

Purpose: To encourage Christians in the midst of opposition and suffering by assuring them that Christ will be victorious over the forces of evil

Revelation should be understood from the perspective of the original audience, an early church that would have lived under the constant threat of the Roman empire

Revelation 1:1-3

¹The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show to his servants the things that must soon take place. He made it known by sending his angel to his servant John, ² who bore witness to the word of God and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, even to all that he saw. ³ Blessed is the one who reads aloud the words of this prophecy, and blessed are those who hear, and who keep what is written in it, for the time is near.
